EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- In claims 1 and 15, line 8; "which" has been changed to --, which--, respectively.
- In claim 18, line 9; "which" has been changed to --, which--.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- With regard to independent claims 1, 15, and 18; as the closest reference of record, Yamanaka et al (US 6,597,548) discloses a magnetoresistive element in Fig. 5, which is to be used for a magnetic reproducing head for a magnetic reproducing apparatus, which includes: a magnetoresistive film including a magnetization pinned layer, a magnetization free layer, and a nonmagnetic intermediate layer, a magnetization direction of the magnetization pinned layer substantially fixed in an external magnetic field, a magnetization direction of the magnetization free layer configured to change in the external magnetic field, the nonmagnetic intermediate layer formed between the magnetization pinned layer and the magnetization free layer and having a stacked structure of a first metallic intermediate layer/a non-metal intermediate layer/a second metallic intermediate layer, which are stacked in a thickness direction; but fails to show that the non-magnetic intermediate layer has a stacked structure of a non-metallic intermediate layer/a metal intermediate layer/a second non-metallic intermediate layer.

- Applicant asserts: an object of the present invention is to provide a magnetoresistive element of a high sensitivity, which has a low interlayer coupling field and a high breakdown voltage while maintaining appropriate resistance and a high MR ratio (Specification, p. 5).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
